PANELISTS:

Bob Luz

President & Chief Executive Officer, Massachusetts Restaurant Association

Bob Luz graduated with a Hospitality Management degree from UMASS Amherst, and started his career in restaurant operations for The Rusty Scupper in 1983, before leading HR & Training for the Back Bay Restaurant Group and subsequently Applebee's International, Inc. He then served as Chief Human Resource Officer for several organizations which through acquisitions eventually became American Blue Ribbon Holdings, parent company of 7 brands with 800 restaurants, 34,000 employees and $1.4B in sales. Since 2013, he has been President & CEO of the Massachusetts Restaurant Association, representing the best interest of the food and beverage industry across the state. There are 15,350 locations and the industry employs over 300,000 directly in those establishments within Massachusetts.

Patrick Renna

Senior Restaurant Executive

Patrick is a Senior Restaurant Executive with over 20 years of experience. He spent the past 5 years with Wahlburgers, a Boston based burger restaurant founded by Executive Chef Paul Wahlberg, and celebrity brothers Mark and Donnie Wahlberg. He spent his first three years at Wahlburgers as its CFO and the last two years as President and CFO. Prior to that, Patrick served as CEO at Boloco, a fast casual globally inspired burrito chain, where he also served as CFO for four years. Prior to Boloco, Patrick was CFO at Sebastian's Café and Catering, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fidelity Investments, where he spent four years overseeing all financial and administrative policies and procedures for the company; this included leadership during the company's most profitable growth period.

Ralph Sacramone
Executive Director, Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission

Ralph Sacramone is the longtime Executive Director of the Massachusetts Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission (ABCC), which is tasked with licensing and regulation of the sale, transportation, possession, purchasing, and manufacturing of alcoholic beverages in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
