

RIW Litigation Attorneys Score Big Trial Win for Client in a Long-Running Home Renovation Dispute

By RIW on January 4, 2023

RIW litigation attorneys Jeremy Weltman and Adam Gutbezah secured a complete judgment in client's favor after a 5 day jury trial argued in the Massachusetts Superior Court. Our clients are a family that had been sued by a general contractor in 2018 claiming he was owed additional monies after he walked-off a major home renovation project three-quarters of the way through.

We not only defeated the general contractor on his claims, but were also awarded a money judgment on counterclaims for breach of contract, breach of warranty, breach of the home improvement contractor law and a violation of Mass. Gen. Laws c. 93A, the so-called "consumer protection statute."

RIW is proud to have delivered a great result for our clients!

POSTED IN: LITIGATION, NEWS

PROFESSIONALS

Jeremy Y. Weltman

PRACTICES

Litigation