

Adam Gutbezahl to Present National Business Institute Webinar on ChatGPT – Legal Issues All Employers Must Know

By RIW on October 30, 2023

On November 28 at 12pm ET, Adam Gutbezahl will present a National Business Institute webinar on “ChatGPT – Legal Issues All Employers Must Know.”

In this program, Adam will explore what employers need to know about the rapidly evolving world of ChatGPT and other AI legal issues in the workplace. The program will cover:

- What the EEOC and other federal agencies have said about using ChatGPT.
- The risks of bias and discrimination when using ChatGPT in employment decision-making.
- Ownership of the content ChatGPT creates and if employers should fear potential IP infringement.
- Best practices for drafting policies and addressing AI use by employees.
