

Adam Barnosky to Judge the MRAEF ProStart Invitational

By RIW on February 5, 2025

Chair of RIW's Restaurant & Hospitality Group, Adam Barnosky, will be a judge at the Massachusetts Restaurant Association Education Foundation's 2025 Massachusetts ProStart Student Invitational later this month. Each year, the MRAEF hosts the ProStart Invitational, which allows schools to compete in culinary and/or management competitions. The judging panel is comprised of industry experts who volunteer their time and knowledge to enhance the student's experience.

RIW is a proud sponsor of the MRA, and we look forward to this event each year! Good luck to all of the participants. Learn more about the competition here.
