RIW Welcomes Summer Interns

By RIW on June 4, 2025

We're happy to share that Anamaria Pananas and Samuel Scott have joined RIW as our 2025 summer interns! Anamaria and Samuel are third-year rising students at Suffolk University Law School. Over the next few months, they will work closely with our team, gaining real-world experience and contributing to meaningful projects across the firm. It's shaping up to be a great summer of learning, collaboration, and growth, and we're excited to have them on board!
