

ChatAdamG: November Newsletter

By Adam Gutbezahl on November 11, 2025

November's ChatAdamG newsletter is here! In this issue, Adam Gutbezahl highlights some of the latest headlines where employment law meets AI, including:

- AI at work: 97% of U.S. workers seek workplace advice from AI instead of their boss, with 72% believing ChatGPT gives better guidance.
- AI and law enforcement: OpenAI now may report ChatGPT conversations suggesting harm. Recent cases include a Florida teen, a Missouri college student, and a California wildfire suspect allegedly using ChatGPT in connection with criminal activity.

Curious about how AI is influencing employees, productivity, and the law? Explore the full issue for Adam's insights and analysis here.
