

Get to Know RIW Paralegal Eduina Selmanhaskaj

By RIW on February 10, 2026

Eduina Selmanhaskaj recently joined the firm as a paralegal supporting the firm's Trusts & Estates Department.

Why did you become a paralegal?

I became a paralegal because I'm naturally detail oriented and enjoy work that requires precision.

Tell us about your career path.

I have completed Law School in Albania in 2010 and got admitted to the Bar there in 2011. I pursued a Master of Law at Suffolk University in May of 2025 and plan to take the Massachusetts Bar when ready.

Tell us about your practice.

As a paralegal in the Trusts & Estates Department, I support attorneys with drafting of estate planning documents, organizing client's information, and managing the flow of each matter.

What do you love most about what you do?

I enjoy the collaborative relationship with the Attorneys I support. I love that my work matters; helping clients and guiding them through the process.

Why did you choose the firm?

I think it is a prestigious law firm that treats clients with compassion. I was impressed by collaborative culture here.

What do you do in your free time?

I enjoy spending time with my family, traveling and reading.
