OVERVIEW

Alison Albanese serves as counsel to a wide range of businesses across multiple industries. Her varied practice includes representing clients in commercial real estate transactions, corporate and business matters, mergers and acquisitions, commercial loan transactions, land use and zoning matters, and hospitality related transactions.

Alison provides her clients with practical, effective, and personalized counsel while working to complete the transactions in an efficient manner.

Prior to joining Ruberto, Israel & Weiner, P.C. Alison was counsel at Adler Pollock & Sheehan P.C. where she represented corporate clients in all corporate and business matters, including mergers and acquisitions. She also represented commercial developers in the acquisition, disposition, leasing, financing, permitting, and development of commercial projects.
