OVERVIEW

Christopher R. Agostino is a shareholder and serves as business counsel to clients across a range of industries, including commercial real estate, construction, lending, manufacturing, hospitality, retail sales and services, and transportation, including carriers and brokerages. His practice covers the lifecycle of most privately held businesses from entity formation, joint ventures, contracts, employment matters, and commercial finance, to mergers and acquisitions, business succession planning, “business divorces” and creditors’ rights.

In addition, Chris helps clients navigate complex administrative law matters and land use regulations, which provides a valuable resource to the firm’s Corporate, M&A, and Commercial Real Estate Groups. He has successfully represented clients in administrative proceedings before federal, state, and local agencies, including proceedings before the Massachusetts Division of Banks, Department of Public Health, Division of Professional Licensure, Department of Environmental Protection, Housing Appeals Committee, and other regulatory agencies. He has served as lead counsel to clients in all phases of Massachusetts Chapter 40B permitting and regulatory compliance.

Chris is a graduate of The College of William and Mary in Virginia and a graduate, cum laude, from Suffolk University Law School.

Chris has been recognized by Martindale Hubbell as an AV® Peer Review Rated Attorney. He is admitted to practice in all state courts in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, and is a member of the American Bar Association.
