Meghan E. Hall

ASSOCIATE

(617) 570-3503 meh@riw.com

OVERVIEW

Meghan Hall is a member of the firm's Litigation Department, and Commercial Real Estate, Construction Law, and Zoning & Land Use Groups. Meghan represents individuals and businesses in a wide variety of matters, including land use, real estate, condominiums and homeowners associations, construction, complex commercial and business disputes. Meghan has represented clients through all stages of litigation from pre-litigation advisory services to jury and bench trials, as well as arbitrations and mediations, through appeal.

From the outset of any case, Meghan works to ensure that her clients are informed and supported so they can make educated and timely decisions throughout the process. She is a strong advocate for her clients, but is also practical and cost-conscious so as to always keep her clients' goals and best interests in mind.

Meghan is a graduate of Assumption College (now Assumption University) and a graduate, cum laude, of Suffolk University Law School. While attending Suffolk University Law School, Meghan was a member of the Suffolk Journal of Trial and Appellate Advocacy, Moot Court Honor Board and served as the Chief Competition Director.
