OUR APPROACH

Client-Centered Strategy

At Ruberto, Israel & Weiner (RIW), our Employment Law Group focuses on one thing above all: delivering smart, business-first legal solutions that work in the real world. We're strategic partners to businesses, HR professionals, and individuals navigating complex workplace challenges.

Whether you're an executive reviewing a non-compete or a growing business updating your policies to stay compliant with Massachusetts labor laws, we provide advice that fits your goals, industry, and risk tolerance.

Our approach is proactive, practical, and responsive, built on long-term relationships and a deep understanding of the evolving employer-employee dynamic.

Fighting to Protect Workplace Rights

Our team brings years of insight from representing both employers and employees. That means we understand how the other side thinks and use that knowledge to craft more strategic outcomes for our clients.

We fight for:

- Employers working to protect their operations, reputation, and workforce
- Employees asserting their rights after wrongful terminations, harassment, or unpaid compensation
- Business owners seeking risk-managed, cost-effective solutions without sacrificing legal strength

Strategic, Preventive, and Solution-Oriented

We're not just here when there's a fire, we help clients avoid one in the first place. Our legal guidance focuses on prevention, risk reduction, and sound policies that support sustainable business practices.

Our advice is:

- Grounded in up-to-date employment law, both Massachusetts and federal
- Aligned with your business structure, workforce model, and growth goals
- Actionable—so you know exactly what to do next

Balanced Representation on Both Sides of the Workplace

Because we work with both employers and employees, we bring a rare, balanced perspective to every issue. That allows us to:

- Anticipate the arguments and tactics of opposing parties
- Recommend negotiation strategies that lead to faster resolutions
- Deliver fair solutions that work for both sides, avoiding costly, prolonged litigation when possible

Dedicated to Massachusetts and Federal Compliance

RIW is on top of every major regulatory update that affects the workplace—from state-level laws like Massachusetts General Law Chapter 151B and Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) to federal rules from the DOL, EEOC, and NLRB.

We help clients comply with:

- Massachusetts Equal Pay Act (MEPA)
- FLSA and state wage/hour laws
- Pregnancy and disability accommodation rules
- Whistleblower protections and retaliation laws
- Employee classification and wage transparency rules

NOTABLE EXPERIENCE

Here's What We Do

Fighting for Employer Wins

Our litigation team, including David Robinson, secured a jury verdict dismissing a gender discrimination claim brought against our client. The outcome protected the business's reputation and validated its internal HR processes. A copy of the court's decision can be found here.

Advocating for Employee Success

Our Massachusetts attorneys routinely represent employees in high-stakes employment disputes, from severance negotiations to wrongful termination cases. We've helped clients secure favorable settlements in discrimination and wage claims, allowing them to move forward with confidence.

Legal Thought Leadership

Adam Gutbezahl has presented to national audiences on workplace topics, including the legal and ethical considerations of Artificial Intelligence in hiring and HR processes—a hot-button issue for today's employers.
